CATECHISM CORNER

Trinity Sunday, also known as Holy Trinity Sunday, is celebrated a week after Pentecost Sunday in honor of the most fundamental of Christian beliefs—belief in the Holy Trinity.

We can never fully understand the mystery of the Trinity, but we can sum it up in the following formula: God is three Persons in one Nature. The three Persons of God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—are all equally God, and They cannot be divided.

The origins of the celebration of Trinity Sunday goes all the way back to the Arian heresy of the fourth century, when Arius denied the divinity of Christ by denying that there are three Persons in God. To stress the doctrine of the Trinity, the Fathers of the Church composed prayers and hymns that were recited on Sundays as part of the Divine Office, the official prayer of the Church.

For a long while there was no official specific day set aside to celebrate or honor the Holy Trinity. Some said the special Trinity prayers on the Sunday before Advent while others had already begun the practice of saying the office on the Sunday following. Pope Alexander II initially refused a petition for a special day to be set aside as he felt that not only was such a feast not customary in the Roman Church but that the Holy Trinity was already honored daily in the Mass and other liturgical functions. He did not, however, forbid the celebration where it already existed. Pope John XXII later decided that the feast would be appropriate and ordered it for the entire Church on the first Sunday after Pentecost.

O Jesus, Eternal Son of the Father, We adore You as our Savior, Lord, and Brother. You, the Word made flesh, revealed the Father's love. You offered Yourself as a sacrifice for our salvation. Your Sacred Heart, pierced for our transgressions, pours out mercy, compassion, and unfathomable love. You nourish us in the Eucharist, strengthening our faith. As our Risen Lord, You intercede for us constantly. Help us to follow in Your footsteps and embrace the Cross. Transform us into Your likeness, so that we may radiate Your goodness. Be our strength, solace, and joy, and sustain us with Your grace until we behold You face to face in Your heavenly Kingdom. We ask this in Your most holy name. You who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.
