In today's Gospel, Jesus feeds the multitude with five loaves and two fish, revealing His compassion and abundant love. He satisfies both physical and spiritual hunger, reminding us that God's grace is never exhausted. As disciples of Christ, we are called to place our trust in Him, offer what we have in service to others, and believe that God can multiply even our smallest gifts to accomplish His work. May we come to the Lord with open hearts, receive His Abundant blessings, and share His love generously with all.
