The Vineyard We Were Given

Once upon a time, God planted a beautiful vineyard and entrusted it to us. He gave us everything we needed: faith, family, talents, time, and people to love.

But sometimes we act like the vineyard belongs only to us. We forget to pray, forget to help, forget to forgive, and sometimes we even forget to say, "Thank You, Lord!"

God keeps sending reminders: a kind person, a helping hand, a word of wisdom, or simply that quiet feeling in our hearts telling us to do better.

The question is not, "What do I own?"

The question is, "What am I doing with what God has entrusted to me?"

The vineyard is God's gift. Our job is to care for it, share its fruits, and return them with grateful hearts.

Lord, help us remember that everything we have is a gift. May the fruits of our lives always show Your love.

good fruit—
